OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

Three Clergy Compare Perspectives on Religious Ethics: How do Jewish, Catholic and Episcopalian traditions help their people arrive at moral decisions to ethical problems? Can we be certain of making the right choice? Following up on last year's exciting presentation, our panel of neighboring religious leaders returns to discuss their varying religion's approach to ethics. This enlightening discussion includes Rabbi Michael Cahana of Congregation Beth Israel, Fr. George Wolf, Pastor of St. Mary's Cathedral and the Very Rev. Dr. William Lupfer, Dean at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral. Join us Tuesday, March 16, 7-8:30pm at Pollin Chapel, 1972 NW Flanders. Your questions will be part of the conversation.

St. Joseph Celebration: Five leading chefs de cuisine in Portland and three premium Oregon wineries will donate their services and menu favorites at this year's St. Joseph Charity Dinner for the Haiti earthquake victims. The event, sponsored by the St. Joseph Group will be Thursday, March 18 at 6:30pm, the eve of the St. Joseph Feast Day in the Cathedral Lower Center. The chefs are: Michael Cronan, Caffe Mingo; Marco Frattaroli, Basta's; Loren Bentley, McMenimin's Ringers; Michael Barshis, University Club and Dominique Guelin, St. Honore Boulangerie. The vintners participating are: Medici Vineyards, Ferraro Wines and Sineann, all of Newberg. The dinner is free to all parishioner and friends. All monies donated will be sent to Catholic Relief Services in Haiti. Please RSVP to the parish office by March 15 at 503.228.4397. ### HEAVENLY VISION; MORE HUMAN WORLD

While we were still without hope, God took us out of our emptiness and brought us into a new land, making with us a covenant of liberation.

But we remain set upon the things of this world, burdened with the original darkness that shadows our vision. Today's Gospel is about restoring our sight so that we can see the bounty of the Lord in the land of the living.

The disciples saw the bounty of the Lord on the mountaintop. They witnessed the dazzling glory of Jesus shining in the company of Moses and Elijah, the glory of the fulfillment of the law and the prophets.

Lent is an acting out of the long road from the covenant to its fulfillment. It is our public proclamation that we are a people who eagerly await the coming of our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

We recognize that we have our citizenship in heaven, but in the meantime we exercise our citizenship on earth for the coming of the kingdom of God.

We purge ourselves of our self-reliance, our thirst for power, and our preoccupation with self-interest, sacrificing and praying that God might deliver Israel from all her distress.

“Christians, on pilgrimage toward the heavenly city, should seek and think of those things which are above. This duty in no way decreases, rather it increases, the importance of their obligation to work with all men in the building of a more human world.”

Vatican II, Constitution on the Church in the Modern World (1965) 57
