CNVS will treat the parish with the most survey participants to a day of complimentary coffee and refreshments following Sunday Masses. ### A Two-Sided Coin:

Religion is a two-sided coin. On the one hand, it comforts us with the security of God's love and protection. On the other hand, it makes demands of us that are frightening in their consequences. Jesus, the Good Shepherd represents a combination of the two aspects of religion. I give my life for my sheep, he says, for he is the shepherd and the sacrificial victim. Those of us who follow Jesus must rely on God's protection and must endure many sufferings. We must care for God's people and we must give our lives for them.

“To set out on the road to discipleship is to dispose oneself for a share in the cross. To be a Christian...is not simply to believe with one's mind, but also to become a doer of the word, a wayfarer with and a witness to Jesus. This means, of course, that we never expect complete success within history and that we must regard as normal even the path of persecution and the possibility of martyrdom.”

U.S. Bishops, The Challenge of Peace (1983)276.
